Message from the Head

Dear Parents,

As we stride towards the end of term, there is still so much going on! Next week the staff and children are looking forward to running the sports relief mile, wearing their Easter bonnets and participating in the Easter service at Church!

We thank you all for your continued support this term

Kind regards,

Mrs Jearrad

Stubbington

Year 5 arrived back from their Stubbington Residential last Friday muddy, tired but very happy. What a fantastic week they had! It began with the children finding sharks teeth and fossils on Stubbington Beach. They made shelters from natural materials and then suffered a drenching if their shelter wasn't strong enough. The best activity was observing the wild life and watching the foxes as they ate and played. They also thoroughly enjoyed the pond dipping – they were all surprised at the amount of wild life they caught in their nets and the capture of small mammals.

Outstanding Money

It will soon be the end of the school financial year. Please could you check your outstanding balances online and clear them by 28th March. Mr White will also be texting those that have any debt. May we take this opportunity to remind you that dinners and breakfast club should be paid for in advance. Online payments are strongly encouraged. If you need to pay by cash or cheque, please could you bring it in on Monday or Thursday morning next week. Thank you.

Book of the Week

KS2- The Suitcase Kid By Jacqueline Wilson.

The Suitcase Kid should inspire KS2 to read more at home. It includes a deep, and sorrowful storyline, perfectly captured by Jacqueline Wilson herself. It expresses real life issues and will be sure to leave you not wanting the story to end. The book is available in our library on the Book of The Week shelf.

KS1- Kangaroo's Cancan Café by Lynne Chapman

This amazing book will hopefully inspire young readers across our School. The book will make our KS1 readers laugh and make you want to read more often. You can find this book in our school library on the Book of The Week shelf.
