

I understand that Hindu shrines are sacred places of worship

We looked at Hindu shrines. This kind of Hindu worship is done in the _____, it is called _____.

The shrine will have an image of a ___ (murti) to help the worshipper to focus. The sound of the _____ is to let God know they have come to worship.

The light of God's presence is shown with the _____ which is waved in the air to bring light to the shrine and worshippers feel the heat. Food and flowers are blessed and offered to the gods, this is called _____.

Kum Kum powder is marked on the forehead to show devotion and _____.
