

Foundation Lessons

For your foundation lessons this week, I want you to find out all you can about Viking Longships. The Vikings used these to travel vast distances across seas and open oceans. You can present the information however you would like. You can either create a PowerPoint, a fact file or a poster on the longships.

