

Maths

In maths this week, focus on looking at fractions, tenths and hundredths. Work your way through the questions, making sure you read the information on how to answer each question as you go. Once you have done the week, email the class account (sycamore.class.2020@hotmail.com) to let me know how you did and how far you got.