

Newspaper checklist

My article has a short, effective headline.

The beginning of my article answers the questions, Who? What? Where? When? Why? My first paragraph is packed with information and tells the reader exactly what my article is about.

Paragraphs give more detail about the event including description and amazing descriptive vocabulary.

The last part of my article brings the story up to date.

Past tense verbs.

Quotations "....." from witnesses. Reported speech. I have included quotes from several people.

Photograph and caption provides a strong image and hooks the reader.
