

Ofsted Report

March 2025

"The school values of love, hope and courage are the golden thread that joins all aspects of school life."

"The school is highly ambitious for every pupil. Pupils achieve well. They fully participate in the wider life of the school."

"Pupils are happy and feel safe."

Parent/Carer responsible use of social media agree- ment

For the protection of all our children and members of staff:

- I will not create, send or post any material that will cause offence or needless anxiety to any family or member of the school community, or bring the school into disrepute.
- I will comply with guidance given at school events in regards to taking photos and videos.
- I will not load photos or videos of other peoples children to social media sites without their parents consent, therefore taking full responsibility for my actions.
- I will inform the school of any material on social media that I feel may breach this agreement.
- I am aware that school will seek legal advice if and when appropriate.

Sign in agreement on reverse.

Safeguarding

Every single person who comes into contact with children and families has a role to play.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is to support us in keeping children safe and away from harm.

What can you do?

SIAMS Report

(Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools)

March 2024

"Partnerships with the local church are strong. This enables ongoing, fruitful discussion and pastoral support for pupils and adults."

"Nursling is a welcoming, happy and inclusive school where the unique qualities of each pupil are celebrated and nurtured."

"Wellbeing is at the heart of Nursling School and pastoral care is underpinned by its Christian values. Compassion is lived out."

"Leaders ensure that relationships are at the heart of the school. Consequently, parents feel understood, pupils feel secure, and staff feel valued."

HOME SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Learning to Love

Building Resilience

Taking Responsibility

We recognise that learning is a journey shared between the child, parents/carers, staff and governors of Nursling Church of England Primary School.

The Lord says, "I will teach you the way you should go; I will instruct you and advise you." Psalm 32:8

AGREEMENT FOR PUPILS

To be responsible...

- for having everything in school that I need for the day
- when walking to and from school
- for my own behaviour
- for the choices I make
- for having the right attitude in class to learn
- by listening carefully to instructions
- when using the Internet and social media following the school e-safety policy

To be respectful...

- so the choices I make ensure everyone is safe and happy in school and able to learn
- by looking after my property and respecting other peoples' belongings
- by keeping my hands and feet to myself
- By treating others how I want to be treated myself

To be resilient...

- by not giving up easily when things get tough
- and persevere with my learning
- and try new things and embrace opportunity

To be reflective

- knowing it is okay to make mistakes so long as I learn from them

To be ready to learn
